

"WEST POINT OF THE AIR"

Women... and their men who fly... provide the human interest of Wallace Beery's newest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starring vehicle, "West Point of the Air," which opened last night at the Torrance Theatre and will be shown tonight and Saturday.

"Bride of Frankenstein" Opens At the Lomita Theatre Sunday

"The Monster" is at large again! Karloff, the grotesque creature of the original "Frankenstein," a murderous giant constructed from parts of dead bodies and brought to life at the height of a crashing electrical storm, comes to the Lomita Theatre, in "The Bride of Frankenstein," a sequel of the first picture, for three days starting Sunday, June 2.

Also on the bill at the Lomita starting Sunday will be seen Guy Kibbee and Aline McMahon in that delightful comedy-drama, "Mary Jane's Pa," and a Laurel and Hardy comedy, "Tit for Tat"; a Popeye cartoon and newswear.

SHOWDOWN!

Charles Boyer, Joel McCrea and Claudette Colbert in a dramatic scene from the Walter Wagner production for Paramount, "Private Worlds." This picture, which comes tonight and Saturday to the Torrance Theatre, is Miss Colbert's first starring picture since she won the acting award for 1934 from the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

Famous Athletes Star In "Hold 'em Yale"

Although football and athletics are merely an incidental portion of the plot of Damon Runyon's "Hold 'em Yale," coming Sunday, Monday and Tuesday to the Torrance Theatre, its cast includes five actors who were prominent in athletics at some time in their past careers.

the Arizona State Teachers' College. After graduation he starred in professional football for several seasons, before turning to grease paint in "The Spirit of Notre Dame."

Warren Hymer, another football star, graduated from Yale. Hymer is also a comedian with several years experience on the English and American stage and in motion pictures.

Cesar Romero was a track star for his alma mater, the University of Havana. William Frawley, character actor, engaged in fist-cuffs and baseball earlier in life.

With youthful Patricia Ellis playing the leading feminine role, "Hold 'em Yale" shows what happens when five "hard citizens" from Broadway become entangled with a dizzy little heiress.

IS IT HUMAN?

The Mechanical Man, featured at the Plaza Theatre in Hawthorne Saturday, Sunday and Monday, is an enigma to all beholders. Is it human? Will he laugh? A cash prize of $10 will be given to the person who can get a hearty ha ha out of the Mechanical Man, or a free pass to the theatre if he smiles.

Frankenstein Monster Returns

"The Monster" is at large again! Karloff, the grotesque creature of the original "Frankenstein," a murderous giant constructed from parts of dead bodies and brought to life at the height of a crashing electrical storm, comes to the Plaza Theatre at Hawthorne, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, in "The Bride of Frankenstein," a sequel to the first picture.

In this strange drama, produced for Universal by Carl Laemmle, Jr., the Monster is seen in further adventures of such a hair-raising nature that the picture is said to furnish the very ultimate in ghastly thrills.

Henry Frankenstein, the half-mad scientist who created the Monster, finds himself forced to continue his experiments with the evil Dr. Pretorius, already successful in the creation of tiny living human beings who lack only size to make them even more perfect figures than the Monster himself.

Meanwhile, the terrifying creature continues his murderous career, until he is befriended by a hermit who teaches him to talk but he again lapses into savagery and takes to the hills. From this point the excitement increases, cul-

JACK HOLT featured as rich HORSEMAN

Star Jack Holt in a picture about horses and he's in his glory. For he is one of the screen country's most ardent horse-lovers.

In "The Unwelcome Stranger," the Columbia comedy-drama at the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne, Friday and Saturday, Holt is starred as the owner of a stock farm where fine horses are bred and trained.

Although Holt always plays his parts with straight forward sincerity, he endowed his characterization of Howard Chamberlain, millionaire sportsman, with more verve and enthusiasm than usual.

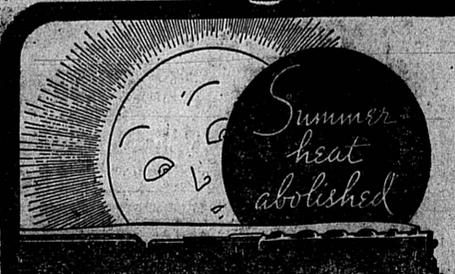

Paramount's "Love In Bloom," featuring George Burns, Gracie Allen, Joe Morrison and Dixie Lee, will be shown tonight and Saturday at the Plaza Theatre. It was directed by Elliott Nugent. Nugent, rated high among the young Hollywood comedy directors, last supervised the filming of Bing Crosby's "She Loves Me Not."

minating when the mad scientists collaborate on the creation of a mate for the lumbering giant. Then follows what is said to be the most amazing climax in the history of the screen.

LEADING 'THE WAR ON CRIME'

James Cagney and Margaret Lindsay, fresh from their triumphs in "Devil Dogs of the Air" have the greatest roles of their career in the first film to show the exploits of the Department of Justice's battle against organized gangs of crooks. See them in "G Men" at the Torrance Theatre on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

New Management Takes Over Show House At Lomita

Father of Celebrated Garland Sisters Has Been In Show Business 20 Years

Frank A. Garland, veteran showman, announced this week that he had taken a five-year lease on the Lomita Theatre from Louis E. Levinson. While Mr. Garland has been in the theatre business for over 20 years, he has spent this entire time in two towns, which would indicate that he planned to remain in Lomita for a long time. For the past eight years he has conducted a theatre in Lancaster, California, and for the 12 years prior to coming to the West, Mr. Garland operated a theatre at Grand Rapids, Minnesota.

Welfare Food Depot Open Saturday

Beginning Saturday, June 1, the Torrance welfare food depot, which serves this entire community, will be open on Saturdays for distribution of food orders to local clients of the county charities department. It was announced today by Rex Thomson, superintendent.
